Dear PERSON,

I am pleased to apply for your advertised opening of Corporate Social Responsibility Senior Analyst at CVS Health. This position is of great interest to me as my past training and experience align with CVS Health's mission of addressing social determinants of health in communities of need. My training in Prevention Science and Implementation Science and my skills in qualitative and quantitative analytic approaches provide the answer for what your company is looking for.

I believe I can be a great addition to CVS Health with my skills and expertise in public health concepts, qualitative research, evaluation techniques, inferential and predictive analyses, and my ability to report and disseminate findings to stakeholders.

Best regards,

Jonathan A. Pedroza (JP), PhD
